Privacy Policy

Ihconline is committed to protecting your privacy and developing technology that gives you the most powerful and safe online experience. This Statement of Privacy applies to the Ihconline Web site and governs data collection and usage. By using the Ihconline website, you consent to the data practices described in this statement.

IHC Is A 508 Compliant Organization

Collection of your Personal Information

Ihconline does not collect personal information.

There is also information about your computer hardware and software that is automatically collected by Ihconline. This information can include: your IP address, browser type, domain names, access times and referring Web site addresses. This information is used by Ihconline for the operation of the service, to maintain quality of the service, and to provide general statistics regarding use of the Ihconline Web site.

Please keep in mind that if you directly disclose personally identifiable information or personally sensitive data through public message boards or databases, this information may be collected and used by others. Note: Ihconline does not read any of your private online communications.

Ihconline encourages you to review the privacy statements of Web sites you choose to link to from Ihconline so that you can understand how those Web sites collect, use and share your information. Ihonline is not responsible for the privacy statements or other content on Web sites outside of the Ihonline and Ihonline family of Web sites.

Use of your Personal Information

Ihonline does not sell, rent, or lease its customer lists to third parties. Ihonline may share data with trusted partners to help us perform statistical analysis, send you email or postal mail, provide customer support, or arrange for deliveries. All such third parties are prohibited from using your personal information except to provide these services to Ihonline, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of your information.

Ihonline does not use or disclose sensitive personal information, such as race, religion, or political affiliations, without your explicit consent.

Ihonline keeps track of the Web sites and pages our customers visit within Ihonline, in order to determine which Ihonline services are the most popular. This data is used to deliver customized content and advertising within Ihonline to customers whose behavior indicates they are interested in a particular subject area.

Ihonline Web sites will disclose your personal information, without notice, only if required to do so by law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to: (a) conform to the edicts of the law or comply with legal process served on Ihonline or the site; (b) protect and defend the rights or property of Ihonline; or, (c) act under exigent circumstances to protect the personal safety of users of Ihonline, or the public.

Use of Cookies

The Ihonline Web site uses "cookies" to help personalize your online experience. A cookie is a text file that is placed on your hard disk by a Web page server. Cookies cannot be used to run programs or deliver viruses to your computer. Cookies are uniquely assigned to you, and can only be read by a Web server in the domain that issued the cookie to you.

One of the primary purposes of cookies is to provide a convenience feature to save you time. The purpose of a cookie is to tell the Web server that you have returned to a specific page. For example, if you personalize Ihonline pages or register with Ihonline site or services, a cookie helps Ihonline to recall your specific information on subsequent visits. This simplifies the process of recording your personal information such as billing addresses, shipping addresses, and so on. When you return to the same Ihonline Web site, the information you previously provided can be retrieved, so you can easily use the Ihonline features that you customized.

You have the ability to accept or decline cookies. Most Web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. If you choose to decline cookies, you may not be able to fully experience the interactive features of the Ihconline services or Web sites you visit.

Security of your Personal Information

Ihconline secures your personal information from unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. Ihconline protects the personally identifiable information you provide on computer servers in a controlled, secure environment. When personal information (like a credit card number) is transmitted to other Web sites, it is protected through the use of encryption (such as the Secure Socket Layer (SSL) protocol).

Changes to this Statement

Ihconline will occasionally update this Statement of Privacy to re act company and customer feedback. Ihconline encourages you to periodically review this Statement to be informed of how Ihconline is protecting your information.
