Question | Responses
--- | ---
Which of the following is a potential harm caused by unnecessary tests or procedures? | a. Antibiotic resistant bacterial infection
b. Delays in treatment
c. Radiation exposure
d. All the above

The U.S. is seeing life expectancy rates that are better than other developed countries for the cost per capita of health care spending. | True or False

What information is included in Choosing Wisely patient education materials that will support physicians in shared decision making? | a. Cost of tests
b. Alternatives to the tests or procedures
c. A form to request tests and note results

The two types of health care services that together represent greater than 50% of all health care spending. | a. Home Care and Pharmaceuticals
b. Durable Medical Equipment and Dental c. Research and Public Health
d. Physician and Hospital services

Was this activity free of commercial bias? | Yes or No

As a result of this presentation how likely are you to explore Choosing Wisely resources for your organization? | a. Very Likely
b. Likely
c. Neutral
d. Not Likely

Please rate the presentation on the ability to meet your expectations for the material. | a. Excellent
b. Very Good
c. Good
d. Fair
e. Poor

Please rate the speaker, Barbara Daiker RN, PhD, on her presentation skills | a. Excellent
b. Very Good
c. Good
d. Fair
e. Poor

Physician Attendance Verification:
I attended ____ hours (rounded to the nearest quarter-hour to a maximum of ____ hours).

Print Name Clearly: ______________________________ Date: ________________

Signature: ___________________________________________________________________________________